If we do not have frost to thin the fruit out, there will have to be a deal of thinning done by hand in all La Luz orchards.

About 11 a. m. Wednesday, it began snowing and kept it up all day. The ground was so warm that the snow melted as fast as it fell. The green alfalfa look of lovely, as the tops were just tufted with snow, until it looked exactly week like pure white blossoms, and it is beautiful. If it does not end with a killing frost, it will be of great benefit to everything. A hard freeze now would do in calculable damage to the fruit.

President C. B. Eddy of the El Paso & Northeastern, accompanied by Vice president H. A. Parker, of the Rock Island, also Mrs. Parker, were met at the railroad here and were driven over our little town. Methinks they would be charmed with what they saw; such nasses of blossoms on all the fruit trees, except those that had long ago shed with fruit of different sizes, up to for her home in El Paso. the size of robins' eggs. The lovely R. P. Swift who owns a large ranch in the fields of vivid green alfalfa, over a croft was in town this week, oot high; rose bushes in luxuriant follage and full of buds. With all these beauties of nature, La Luz never looked better than now. The cottonwoods are coming into leaf most rapidly.

The Best Blood Purifier.

The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this pur-pose there is nothing equal to Chamber-lain' Stomach and Liver Tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price, 25 cents. Caught a Dreadful Cold. Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine mil-linery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself.
It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by W. E. Warren & Co.

The new Grace Methodist Episcopal church will be dedicated next Sunday, April 8. Several ministers of note will be present to assist the pastor, Rev.

Hoffman in the dedication services. The church is on one of the most prominent lots on Tenth street. It was ullt by O. D. Warnock, and F. A. Beidleman, as chairman of the board of trustees, has had general supervision of the work of building and furnishing. It stands a monument to the faithful work of both pastors and members.
